LTA BENDAGIRI MATAM KEERTHI CHANDRA graduated from the 63rd Field Artillery Officer Cadet Course (FAOCC) and was posted to CYRUS Battery of the 21st Battalion Singapore Artillery (21 SA) where he served as the Battery Recce Officer (BRO).

As the BRO, LTA Keerthi managed the training programme of his Battery effectively, and ensured that all necessary training required by the BRO team was conducted in preparation for evaluation test. Competent and professional, he led his people effectively during trainings and exercises. A disciplined and determined officer, LTA Keerthi was fit and achieved a Gold award for his Individual Physical Proficiency Test (IPPT). He also obtained the Marksmanship award for his Combat Shoot.

In addition, LTA Keerthi also volunteered to take up SAFDP tasking as the overall in-charge for Infrastructure & Decorations segment and was awarded with the Commanding Officer Coin.

A caring and humble commander, LTA Keerthi took care of his people and recognised them for their contributions. A capable and dependable leader, he was well-regarded by his superiors, peers and subordinates.

LTA Keerthi also participated in National Day Parade 16 (NDP) as the Liaison Officer to Show Committee and took charge of the gunners training schedule and welfare. He also helped out in the Logistics which included coordinating rations and Funpack for the Act 1 performers. Even on days when he was not required to be on site with the Battery, he would still take time off during the weekend to help and give moral support to the Battery.

With his professionalism, dedication and values, LTA Keerthi would be an asset to any organization.
